PERSIA DEPENDS ON AN AMERICAN

Salvation of Country Rests With Young Minister Of Finance, Says Leaders

PRICE IS PLACED ON HIS HEAD

Bitter Anti-Russian Demonstration Follows Demand For Shuster's Expulsion

TEHERAN, Dec. 1.—Great Britain this afternoon sent a message to the Persian government urging that Russia's demands for the expulsion of W. Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer-general, be accepted. The majlis (parliament) is standing firmly by Shuster, and this afternoon refused to order his expulsion. As a result of the tangle over England and Russia's opposition to the conduct of the American treasurer-general, the foreign minister tendered his resignation today. The latter is firmly convinced that Russia and England are determined to obtain large slices of Persian territory, and he stepped down, feeling that he would be unable to satisfy the powerful opposition that Russia and England are placing in his way.

TEHERAN, Dec. 1.—The streets of this city today were the scene of a bitter anti-Russian demonstration, following the action of parliament in refusing to agree to Russia's ultimatum demanding the expulsion of Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer-general of Persia. Parliament's rejection of the Russian ultimatum is believed to be the forerunner of grave eventualities. Repeated attempts have been made to assassinate Shuster, whose supporters assert Russia has placed a price on his head. Shuster is constantly alone with the young American minister of finance.

In an interview with the United States correspondent today, Shuster declined to go into details concerning attempts to assassinate him. He admitted, however, that his body guard had saved him on several occasions. Discussing Russia's attempts to force his dismissal, he said:

"The demand for my dismissal is based on my refusal to recognize Russia's sphere of influence in northern Persia. If I had acceded to the czar's demand, I would have betrayed the people I serve. The unexpected repulse of the former shah and the solidarity of the constitutional government has further embittered the Russian bureaucracy. If the people of Persia wish to submit to the dictation of Russia, they will have to get a new treasurer-general."

"Russia never intended to permit financial reforms in Persia. The czar was forced to show his hand more quickly than he expected, however, because of the European situation, and the insincerity of England."

"England sanctioned the attacks on me, but I challenge either England or Russia to show an act of mine that has been opposed to legitimate foreign interests, or to prove that any statement I have made regarding their attitude is false. I offer no apology for my conduct."

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—Ala Ed Dowle, brother of the former Persian minister at Berlin, was assassinated today in front of his residence at Teheran, according to a news dispatch received here. It is believed that Ala Ed Dowle was mistaken for his brother who was involved in the controversy concerning the Persian treasurer-general, W. Morgan Shuster, whose dismissal has been demanded by Russia.

THREE KEEPERS ON THE CARPET

Schubert and Webber Examine Bennett Hartley and Stone at Police Station Today

OTHERS MAY HAVE TOLD

Fact that Neither Hattie Bowker nor Rose Vermont were Taken May Be Significant

Three well known resort keepers were taken to the city hall this afternoon and subjected to a vigorous examination relative to the police graft cases by Chief Webber and City Attorney Schubert.

The women are "Doc" Bennett, Sadie Stone and Anna Hartley, and the fact that neither Hattie Bowker nor Rose Vermont were taken to the station or interviewed lends color to the rumor that these two women have "coughed."

Mr. Schubert was asked about the rumor just before he entered the chief's office, but he declined to discuss it. However, a smile of satisfaction that the inquiry inspired seem to tell volumes regarding what the official had found out as the result of his talks with these women.

The three women were brought to the city hall by officers, and were left in charge of a bluecoat until the chief and city attorney were ready for the probe. The Hartley woman was then taken into Schubert's office, where the examination was conducted.

A glimpse of the city attorney secured as one of the women was leaving the office in charge of an official in a new role. His jaw was set, and his face wore an expression of grim determination.

It was announced today that, while not fully recovered from his recent attack, Chief Webber is determined not to let his ailment hinder a thorough probing of the charges at once. It was reported that he was sufficiently himself again today to render important assistance to Mr. Schubert.

Nothing could be learned as to the result of the investigation today, as access to the office of Mr. Schubert was denied to reporters.

DEPARTMENT TO RECORD DISEASE

Dr. J. M. Furstman to Get Big Map of City and Mark Homes where Contagion Has Visited

A new plan to keep a record of the contagious diseases in the city has been planned on by the health department and under the new system which is to be started soon records of each month can be kept for reference in later years.

For the present the department is using a small map of the city on which is marked every block and on this they mark the location of any house in which there is a contagious disease of any kind.

However, the department is to get a much larger map with the exact location of every lot in La Crosse and they will keep the records of all contagious diseases on this. Different colors will be used to designate the various diseases, and the exact location where the case is will be known as all the lots are definitely placed. It is planned to use one map for each month and then to file them away for reference.

The location of grocery stores and meat markets will also be noted on the maps for, if in placing the list of diseases on the map it is found that there is an epidemic of one disease in a certain community an investigation can be made to see if all the people in that place purchase their supplies at the store in that section. In this way it is thought that a closer watch can be kept so that there will not be so much danger of disease spreading.

TARIFF BOARD SPLIT ON REPORT

President Postpones Cabinet Meeting to Confer with Members; Situation Serious

TO SEND A SPECIAL MESSAGE

President Will Not Wait for Report on Wool Before Message to Congress

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Following generally credited reports of a split in the tariff board on the wool report, President Taft today called in Henry C. Emery and Alvin H. Sanders, two members of the board, and postponed the cabinet meeting to confer with them.

It was believed the president insisted on their giving him such information as they had on hand and from this he would immediately begin the preparation of his special wool message, without waiting for the board's report.

It was considered significant that James B. Reynolds, active member of the board, was not present. The other two members, William Howard and Thomas W. Pake, took their places comparatively recently, and the main work has been done by Emery, Sanders and Reynolds.

It is believed Reynolds stands out for a protective tariff, and that both Emery and Sanders favor a tariff "for revenue only" along the lines of the democratic message vetoed by Taft last summer.

From today's developments it was predicted Taft would propose a big reduction in the wool tariff and would try to strike a balance between the protectionists and the democrats.

The president arranged to take the matter before the cabinet this afternoon. That the situation was serious was not questioned. Emery and Sanders took bundles of documents to the White House and were closeted with the president for hours.

It was explained that the president wished to send the matter to congress as soon as he could. With the message he will submit the report of the board. It was denied that the president asked the members to change their report, which will be completed in about a week.

The determination of the house democratic leaders to pay little, if any attention, to the reports, became apparent today when Representative Underwood (Dem., Ala.), chairman of the ways and means committee, announced his intention of calling his committee together immediately after congress convenes.

"The president will be given a reasonable time in which to submit the reports of the tariff board," said Underwood today, "and if they are not in, then we will proceed to make our own investigation."

PATTERSON CASE AROUSES STORM

Finding of Jury in Famous Murder Trial Called Disgrace To the Country

DENVER, Col., Dec. 1.—Not in recent Colorado history has a verdict in a criminal case aroused such a storm of criticism as that heard today, following the finding of the jury in the case of Gertrude Gibson Patterson.

This is largely the result of yesterday's Thanksgiving services in the Auditorium which were converted into a meeting denunciations of the Patterson case by Rev. H. Martyn Hart, dean of the Episcopal-Catholic church, who addressed the audience to enthusiasm when he shouted:

"I am ashamed of the jury. I am ashamed of the jury, and I would be ashamed of myself unless I cried out against this travesty on righteousness. I am ashamed of the people who applauded this verdict. I ask you to stand up and say that this thing shall stop. It is a disgrace to the country. I find there are more murders in Denver than in London, and I expect to be murdered myself some day."

Gov. Shafroth, Prosecutor Benson and a score of other prominent men and club women, all issued statements denouncing the jury's action as unwarranted and based wholly on sentiment.

Mrs. Patterson wants to forget the name of Patterson. She will ask the courts to grant her permission to take back her maiden name of Gibson.

60,000 ARE LOCKED OUT

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—Sixty thousand metal workers have been locked out and the industry is at a standstill today. Many of the establishments are involved in the American tool trade. Most of the men are meeting with the employes to reach a settlement.

ANGLO-GERMAN WAR INEVITABLE

Noted Friend of Bismarck Declares Break Between Rival Powers Is Unavoidable

BLAMES GERMAN DIPLOMATS

Says They Have Acted on Theory that the Other Man Is a Stupid Fellow

(By Earl H. Wiegand, Berlin Correspondent of the United Press.)

BERLIN, Dec. 1.—Unless a complete "right about face" in the methods and policies of the men in control of Germany's foreign affairs, war between Germany and England is inevitable, in the opinion of Editor Maximilian Harden of the "Zukunft" or "Future," and Editor Harden does not believe there will be a "right about face."

Aside from the kaiser, Harden is probably the best known man in Germany. He was a close friend of Bismarck, and, in the "Iron Chancellor's" latter days, won fame by breaking up notorious "round table Caramilla" in which counts and princes were prominent, and wielded a pen which is as feared and respected as is that of no other publicist in the Fatherland.

Bitterness Increased

"The Moroccan affair," he said in an interview given especially to the United Press, "has intensified Anglo-German bitterness. Germans feel deep in their hearts that England prevented Germany from being more successful in the negotiations. Now this affair was wholly unnecessary. Could German diplomats think that England would permit Germany to get a foothold on the west coast of Morocco?"

"It was not to be thought of. And it was not necessary to Germany's national life. It was the crowning blunder of a decade of German diplomatic blunders, each worse than the preceding one."

"How could it be otherwise with men, however, estimable personally, who have not the diplomatic capacity to direct the empire's international affairs or to rise to a situation. Germany's international position today is worse than in many years. This is due to the incapacity of the men at the head of the government, to the unskilled hands of those who direct its foreign policy, to their lack of foresight—to the form of government. The reichstag is merely an ornament. Under it is no responsible ministry. It makes the people pay for errors they did not commit, bear the results of blunders by men they did not select. For ten years German diplomacy has acted too much on the theory that the other man is a stupid fellow. That is an absurd basis on which to deal."

"War with England is unavoidable—shall I say inevitable—unless there is quickly a complete 'face about' in the methods and policies of the men who direct German foreign affairs. It could be averted, but I doubt very much if it will be. There seems to be a feeling on both sides that it must come."

"I have it from many high sources that England wanted war with Germany late in the summer, that it was considered a favorable opportunity. Why the 'entente powers' held back is, of course, not known generally. I speak of it openly. Only 'little diplomats' believe in a secret. They are waiting for Russia to become capable of striking."

"When Russia again becomes a power there will be a sudden change in European politics. Will Germany not only wait and allow its enemies to become greater but also permit them to set the time that it shall be reckoned with?"

"Now, I believe the first step would be an agreement on the naval question. The present insane rivalry leads to nothing but bitterness. We say we build warships to protect our foreign commerce. Does that deceive anyone? Certainly not. Will England stop building? Not while Germany continues building. It is a question of life and death for England."

BODIES WASH ASHORE

ENGINEER REPORTED ON BOARD PARTLY SUBMERGED SHIP IN LAKE ONTARIO; RUNS ON ROCKS

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 1.—A report from Point Albino this morning, stated that Engineer Pritchard is still aboard the wrecked steamer Raleigh, which went on the rocks yesterday. Only the prow of the vessel can be seen and it is unlikely Pritchard is still alive. Three bodies have been washed ashore. They are Fred Wise, cook, and Mrs. Fred Wise, stewardess, of Cleveland, O., and an unidentified man.

The Raleigh, bound from Quebec to Erie, Pa., is a wooden vessel, owned by Henry Wineman, Jr., of Detroit.

Captain Harry Beauvais of Cleveland, and eight members of the Raleigh's crew, who reached shore in lifeboats, are on their way here.

FOREIGNER MAY BE NEXT POPE

Italians To Have a Majority Of But One In New Sacred College

MAY RESTORE SOVEREIGNTY

Italian Cardinals Hope To Regain Temporal Kingdom; Likely To Disagree

ROME, Dec. 1.—Pope Pius has, by his appointments to the cardinalate, created a situation which may result in a foreigner being selected as his successor.

The Sacred college is now composed of thirty-three Italians and thirty-one foreigners.

In addition the pope has created another cardinal "imprete" and there is speculation as to his nationality. It is believed probable that the name of the secretly created prince of the church will not be known until after the death of Pope Pius. If he is a foreigner, as many believe, the Italians will have a majority of one in the Sacred college.

The greatest danger that the Italian cardinalate sees in the possible selection of a foreigner for pontiff is that the new pope would end the quarrel with the quinquennial by fully renouncing the church's claims to temporal sovereignty.

To Restore Temporal Power

The Italian cardinals believe that the next pontiff must restore the church's temporal power if it is ever restored.

The majority of the Italian cardinals are confident that if a diplomatic pontiff is selected, like Pope XIII, the church, through his efforts, will be able to regain from Italy at least a small temporal kingdom that will again permit the holy father to take rank with the temporal sovereigns of the world.

It seems probable that Italian cardinalate will be unable to agree on one of their number when the question of a successor to Pope Pius is considered. Even the danger of a foreign pope being elected is not expected to harmonize them.

Foreigners Can't Agree

Those in Rome who profess to see no danger in Pope Pius' act of creating so many foreign cardinals, point out that it would be equally impossible for the foreigners to agree. They insist that the German cardinals would not support a Frenchman and that the Austrians would oppose a Spaniard. This situation applies to possible candidates from all nationalities. As a consequence, the more conservative Catholics would say, it would be impossible for any cardinal, other than an Italian, to be elevated to the papacy.

Of the 160 popes who have ruled the Roman church, 80 have been foreigners.

CHINESE ARMIES TO HOLD TRUCE

Premier Yuan Extends Offer To Rebels To Discuss Terms of Peace

PEKING, Dec. 1.—Premier Yuan Shi Kai has granted a three days' truce, for the purpose of discussing proposed terms of peace with the rebels. If at the end of three days no definite agreement has been reached and there still is a reasonable possibility of settlement, the truce will be extended fifteen days. The Manchus are more disposed to be lenient in their terms since the capture of Purple Hill, within the walls of Nankin, by the rebel forces.

General Li, commanding the rebel forces has not reported whether he will accept the armistice, but there is a general feeling that he will consent. If he does, the rebel and imperial leaders will meet at Shanghai to consider the settlement outlined by Yuan Shi Kai.

There are persistent reports that the premier has his eye on the regency and possibly the throne. Friends of Yuan have asked the foreign legations to protect him, as he is threatened with assassination by both Manchus and Chinese.

Yuan today announced his willingness to accept the constitution if the revolutionists would agree. The national assembly, in session today, approved the Franco-Belgian loan of $20,000,000. The sum of $3,000,000 will be delivered to the government, through the Russo-Belgian bank immediately.

FIRE ON RED CROSS CORPS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—In a dispatch received at the Italian embassy today, General Caneva, commander of the Italian forces, charged that in the bombardment of Tagaira, Turkish wantonly fired on the Italian Red Cross corps, killing relief troops and wounded men.

FARMERS MUST GET LICENSES TO SELL

Amendments to State Peddler Law May Defeat Plan of Merchants to Reduce Cost of Living

MUST DISPLAY THEIR BADGES

Fee for Transient Merchants Ranges from $20 to $75; to Enforce Law to Letter

That the action of the common council, in revoking the city ordinance compelling the licensing of peddlers and hawkers, may not get the result intended—the reduction of the high cost of living—came to light today when C. H. Rawlinson, county clerk, received an official communication from D. H. Davies, state treasury agent, calling attention to the amendments to the state peddler law compelling the securing of licenses and the display of signs and badges by transient merchants.

The city council repealed the city ordinance at the request of the Retail Merchants and the Retail Grocers' associations who recently inaugurated a scheme to reduce the high cost of living as a part of the campaign for a free bridge. The plan was to allow the farmers to peddle their produce direct to the consumer.

The new law provides that all peddlers or hawkers must display the sign, now to be provided by the state treasury agent at the time of issuance of the state license, on their wagons or vehicles.

According to local city officials the amended law means that farmers cannot retail their goods in the city without securing a state license.

The following scale of prices for licenses is quoted in the letter to Mr. Rawlinson:

For peddling with one horse, $45; for peddling with two horses, $75; for peddling with push or hand cart, $30; for peddling on foot, $20.

In his letter, Mr. Davies adds that while the law has not been enforced rigidly in the past that every officer is expected to see that it is complied with from now on. Severe penalties are provided for those who fail to secure a license and for failing to exhibit the signs or badges.

STUDENT OF BOYS TO SPEAK HERE

David R. Porter, New York, to Speak at Big Y. M. C. A. Banquet at 5.30 Tomorrow

Men of La Crosse, whether members of the Y. M. C. A. or not, will have an opportunity to attend a banquet and lecture at the association building tomorrow at 5.30 when an important conference for men only will be held.

David R. Porter of New York, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., who has devoted his entire time to studying high and preparatory school boys, will deliver an address after the banquet on the topic "Our Duty to the High School Boy." No boys will be admitted to the talk as it is for the men only. The banquet is to begin at 5.30 p. m.

About thirty men from out of the city have signified their intention of attending the banquet and lecture and many more are expected. It is hoped that a large number of La Crosse men will attend as Mr. Porter is an interesting speaker who is well qualified to talk on the topic. Places for the banquet can be secured by communicating with the officers of the Y. M. C. A.

BANK PLAN TO CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Final work in the task of representing to congress the Aldrich central bank plan will be begun here tomorrow by the National Monetary commission. Three years have been devoted to investigation, and tons of literature circulated. The commission will draft a bill covering the features of the Aldrich plan, which will be introduced in congress, and a bitter contest will start.

Leary, real estate broker and alleged betrayer of the convicted man's daughter, was sentenced today to an indeterminate term of not less than five years nor more than ten years. ## TAFT ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY

President Discusses His Administration in an Article in the Outlook

STANDS PAT ON THE TARIFF

Says He Would Change Only Wording, Not Meaning, of Winona Speech

President Taft in an authorized interview by Francis E. Leupp says:

"I am very grateful for the honors the people have given me. I do not affect to deny the satisfaction I should feel, if after casting up the totals pro and con, and striking a balance, they should decide that my first term had been fruitful enough of good to warrant their enlisting me for another. Any man would be proud of such a verdict. But I have not been willing, nor shall I be, to purchase it at the sacrifice of my freedom to do my duty as I see it. My happiness is not dependent on holding any office; and I shall go back to private life with no heartburnings if the people, after an unprejudiced review of my administration, conclude that some one else can serve them to their greater advantage."

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—President Taft has announced, through an article in The Outlook, his candidacy for a second republican nomination.

In a general discussion of his administration he states also:

"I should have changed the sentence (in his Winona speech) where I proclaim the Payne tariff law the best ever passed."

"My chief objection to a needlessly high tariff is that it nourishes monopoly."

"I fully realize, and I wish our people would, that the present prosperity of the treasury is due in no small measure to the existing tariff."

"I would not resort to the ordinary income tax except in an emergency like war."

As a calendar of "unfinished business" for his term, the president cites:

Reductions in the wool and cotton schedules and possibly the metal schedule.

Legislation to develop Alaska.

The ratifying of the peace treaties with France and Great Britain.

Under title of "President Taft's Own Views," the article is a report of an authorized interview at Virginia Hot Springs by Francis E. Leupp.

Others who are close to the subject of the interview accept it as virtually Mr. Taft's own declaration. It reads as follows:

Taft's Winona Speech

"Speaking of the tariff issue, Mr. President, if you could begin your administration again, would you repeat your Winona speech tomorrow?" the interviewer asked.

"In phraseology, no; in effect, yes. Had I known as much as I do now, I should have realized that there are some things one cannot leave to be taken for granted."

"I have no fault to find with either democrats or insurgents for trying to reduce any duties they chose; what I object to is disturbing the business of the country today, when there is nothing better than guesswork to proceed upon, and then disturbing it afresh six months later when the best available information is before us."

"Is your tariff reduction program based on the theory that it will bring about a corresponding reduction in the cost of living?"

"I think that that effect is greatly overestimated. My chief objection to a needlessly high tariff is that it nourishes monopoly. It holds forth a constant temptation to the formation of little trusts."

WOULD WED; CALLED INSANE

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—Alleged to be insane because he spent $100,000 within a short time and had frequent altercations with tradesmen, Lorin S. Bernheimer, millionaire wholesale cotton goods dealer, and related to the Guggenheims, today is being sought for examination into his sanity. Commitment papers have been signed. Relatives say Bernheimer was planning to wed a widow.

WALTER HOUSER ROBBED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Harrison J. Parsons and Gordon Anderson, 16 year old messenger boys, are held today charged with entering the office of the Progressive Republican league and stealing $50 worth of stamps and a fur lined overcoat from Walter Houser, director of Senator La Follette's campaign.

(OLD GREENE STORE)

being wholly made of the active medicinal principles extracted from native forest roots, by exact processes original with Dr. Pierce, and without the use of a drop of alcohol, triple-refined and chemically pure glycerine being used instead in extracting and preserving the curative virtues residing in the roots employed, these medicines are entirely free from the objection of doing harm by creating an appetite for either alcoholic beverages or habit-forming drugs.

Examine the formula on their bottle-wrappers—the same as sworn to by Dr. Pierce, and you will find that his "Golden Medical Discovery," the great blood-purifier, stomach tonic and bowel regulator—the medicine which, while not recommended to cure consumption in its advanced stages (no medicine will do that) yet does cure all those catarrhal conditions of head and throat, weak stomach, torpid liver and all bronchial troubles, weak lungs and hang-on-coughs, which, if neglected or badly treated lead up to and finally terminate in consumption.

Take the "Golden Medical Discovery" in time and it is not likely to disappoint you if only you give it a thorough and fair trial. Don't expect miracles. It won't do supernatural things. You must exercise your patience and persevere in its use for a reasonable length of time to get its full benefits. The ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicines are composed have the unequalled endorsement of scores of medical leaders—better than any amount of lay, or non-professional, testimonials although the latter are received by thousands.

Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your neighbors. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood.

The Prodigal Judge

The Famous Novel by Vaughan Kester

Copyright, 1911, The Bobbs-Merrill Company

"Price!" he called, but this gained him no response, and he cursed softly under his breath.

He hastily descended to the kitchen, lighted a candle, and stepped into the adjoining room. On the table was a neat pile of papers, and atop the pile was the president's letter. Being burdened by no false scruples, and thinking it might afford some clue to the judge's whereabouts, Mahaffy took it up and read it. Having mastered its contents he instantly glanced in the direction of the City Tavern, but it was wrapped in darkness.

"Price is drunk somewhere," was his definite conclusion. "But he'll be at Boggs' the first thing in the morning—most likely so far gone he can hardly stand!"

The letter, with its striking news, made little or no impression on him just then; it merely furnished the clue he had sought. The judge was off somewhere marketing his prospects.

After a time Mahaffy went upstairs, and, without removing his clothes, threw himself on the bed. He was worn down to the point of exhaustion, yet he could not sleep, though the deep silence warned him that day was not far off. What if he would not let the thought shape itself in his mind. He had witnessed the judge's skill with the pistol, and he had even a certain irrational faith in that gentleman's destiny. He prayed God that Fentress might die quickly and decently with the judge's bullet through his brain. Over and over in savage supplication he muttered his prayer that Fentress might die.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

The Duel.

Mahaffy watched for the coming of the dawn, but before the darkness lifted he had risen from the bed and gone down stairs, where he made himself a cup of wretched coffee. Then he blew out his candle and watched the gray light spread. He was impatient now to be off, and fully an hour before the sun, set out for Boggs', a tall, gaunt figure in the shadowy uncertainty of that October morning. He was the first to reach the place of meeting, but he had scarcely entered the meadow when Fentress rode up, attended by Tom Ware. They dismounted, and the colonel lifted his hat. Mahaffy barely acknowledged the salute; he was in no mood for courtesies that meant nothing. Ware was clearly of the same mind.

There was an awkward pause, then Fentress and Ware spoke together in a low tone. The planter's speech was broken and hoarse, and his heavy, bloodshot eyes were the eyes of a haunted man; that was all a part of Fentress' scheme to face the world, and Ware still believed that the fires Hicks had kindled had served his desperate need.

When the first long shadows stole out from the edge of the woods Fentress turned to Mahaffy, whose glance was directed toward the distant corner of the field, where he knew his friend must first appear.

"Why are we waiting, sir?" he demanded, his tone cold and formal.

"Something has occurred to detain Price," answered Mahaffy.

The colonel and Ware exchanged looks. Again they spoke together, while Mahaffy watched the roan. Ten minutes slipped by in this manner, and one more Fentress addressed Mahaffy.

"Do you know what could have detained him?" he inquired, the ghost of a smile curling his thin lips.

"I don't," said Mahaffy, and relapsed into a moody and anxious silence. He held dueling in very proper abhorrence, and only his feeling of intense but never-declared loyalty to his friend had brought him there.

Another interval of waiting succeeded.

"I have about reached the end of my patience; I shall wait just ten minutes longer," said Fentress, and drew out his watch.

"Something has happened—" began Mahaffy.

"I have kept my engagement; he should have kept his," Fentress continued, addressing Ware. "I am sorry to have brought you here for nothing, Tom."

"Wait!" said Mahaffy, planting himself squarely before Fentress.

"I consider this comic episode at an end," and Fentress pocketed his watch.

EASILY BREAKS A SEVERE COLD

In just a few hours all misery from a bad cold or the Grippe will be overcome.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound, taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken, will end the Grippe and break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach, limbs or any part of the body.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stuffiness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end Grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after effects, as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Quips and Cranks and Wanton Wiles

The Proud Turk
So proud you were, and haughty,
That I thought you really naughty,
Long ago:
You despised the ducks and chickens,
And you thumped them like the dickens.
Which was low!

But perhaps I was mistaken,
And my judgment is quite shaken.
And I roar,
When I see you plucked and roasted,
You are really all you boasted,
And some more.

You were proud of feathers wavy,
But you never mentioned gravy
In the plate!
And I thought that you were bluffing!
But you never mentioned stuffing!
Oh, you're great!!
—Lippincott's.

A Libel

"John M. Harlan," said a Chicago lawyer, in a eulogy of the late supreme court justice, "had a way of pointing an observation with a story."

"Once he wanted to rebuke a man for exaggeration, so he said he was as bad as a Pittsburgh millionaire who was being interviewed by a New York reporter."

"Where, sir, were you born?" the reporter, as he sharpened his pencil, asked.

"I was born in Pittsburgh," said the millionaire.

"And when did you first—er—see the light of day?"

"When I was nine," the millionaire replied. "My people then moved to Philadelphia."

A Good Figure

Robert Herrick, the author, was talking at a luncheon in Chicago about literary figures.

"Figures," he said, "are only good when they illuminate, when they underscore or italicize, one's meaning."

"As I passed a building operation the other day I heard a foreman employ an excellent figure."

"What are ye doin' up there, Smith?" he shouted from the pavement.

"A head appeared above and an injured voice replied:
"Layin' bricks, of course."
"Well, by gosh," said the foreman, "from yer silence ye might be layin' eggs."

A Cooked Account

Provost Harrison of the University of Pennsylvania said of a somewhat over-cooked report:

"It reminds me of the cash account of a millionaire's wife. Her husband, looking this account over the other day, said:
"I notice here, my dear, an item of $500 for charity. That's rather steep. What is it for?"
"The lady flushed as she replied:
"It's for my new Paquin gown embroidered with autumn leaves and fruit that I'm going to wear at the Halloween charity ball next week, and I think it's very mean of you to mention it, so I do!"

Simple Prescription Wonderful

Kidney and Bladder Cure

The following simple prescription has become famous on account of its remarkable cures in cases of kidney and bladder ailments. Get six ounces of good pure gin and add to it one-half ounce Murax Compound and one-half ounce fluid extract Buchu. Take one to two teaspoonsful of this mixture after each meal and at bed time. It quickly relieves backache, rheumatic pains in the joints, and other well known symptoms which can hardly be mentioned here. The ingredients can be had at any good drug store and are easily mixed.

FOR SICK HEADACHE, SOUR STOMACH, LAZY LIVER OR SLUGGISH BOWELS

Turn the rascals out—the headache, the biliousness, the indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse and regulate your stomach; remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and that misery-making gas; take the excess bile from your liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Tragedy Writ Large

The people didn't merely look at Prof. Branefog—they stared. He knew he was absent-minded at times and he wondered whether he had rubbed his face with boot polish instead of cold cream after he had shaved, or whether he had forgotten to change his dressing gown for his frock coat.

But a kind policeman put things right.

"Are you aware, sir, that you are carrying a joint of beef in your arms?" he asked.

"Goodness me!" said the professor. "I knew something was wrong. My wife told me to put her Sunday hat on the bed, to place this joint in the oven, and to take the baby and the dog out for a walk."

"You've not put the baby in the oven, surely?" said the law's guardian.

"I put something in it," said Mr. Branefog; "but I don't know whether it was the baby or the dog."

With bated breath they hurried to the professor's house. Here, on the bed, lay the baby and the dog, but it was just as bad for Branefog. It was his wife's Sunday hat that was in the oven!

The Good Advisor

"Poor Carrie Nation," said a New York clergyman, "had her good points, and one of them was a belief in the uplifting power of woman."

"Carrie Nation often used to tell about a clubman who, in a very bad way, consulted his physician. The clubman suggested for himself a sea voyage, but the physician didn't seem to think that necessary."

"What you must do," he said, "and if you do it you'll be yourself again in a month—is to give up smoking and drinking."

"Oh, hang it, doctor," said the clubman peevishly, "you talk just like my wife!"

M'FARLAND MAKES POOR SHOWING

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 1.—That Packey McFarland is not a match for Ad Wolgast is the size-up of the Chicago lad today by fight fans who witnessed his battle with Harlem Tommy Murphy yesterday. He earned a decision after twenty rounds of fierce fighting, but failed to land a knockout. While the pride of the stock yards clearly outclassed Murphy, his work did not come up to expectations.

Packey explained his failure to score a knockout by declaring he broke a small bone in his right hand in the twelfth round. Today the hand was badly swollen, but physicians are unable to state whether it is really broken.

Murphy's showing is regarded as remarkable in view of the terrific battering he received. Although knocked down several times, he always rose gamely and went back for more. He appeared to improve, too, as the fight progressed, and the nineteenth and twentieth rounds were his best. McFarland apparently landed at will, but could not get enough steam up to put the New Yorker out. Packey's next engagement is with Matt Wells in New York.

MUST TELL GAUTCH IF YOU EAT DEER

Deputy State Game Warden Edward Gautsch today called attention to the new law covering the consumption of venison.

According to the measure, passed at the last session of the legislature, the hunters who were fortunate enough to kill a deer must notify the game warden of the exact weight of the animal and in writing explain to him when and where it is to be eaten.

The season ended in this state yesterday and in La Crosse a large number succeeded in bagging deer.

Ellixir of Life for Steel.

For mankind, as yet, the ellixir of life remains undiscovered; but for steel it has been found. The element vanadium, when added in certain predetermined and small proportions, gives to steel the combined properties of increased tensile strength, higher elastic limit and greater ductility. Strength, toughness, elasticity, united with freedom from crystallization—these are the life-giving properties which vanadium imparts to steel, properties which raise its endurance to meet the burdens which are daily increasing upon it.

NEW PASTOR FOR THE BAPTIST CHURCH

The Tabernacle Baptist church, Clinton and Avon streets, after being for over a year without a pastor, has secured the services of Rev. R. E. Cody, formerly of Benton, Ill., for the winter. Mr. Cody is at present living in Tomah. He will hold his first services in the north side church Sunday morning. Rev. Cody was forced to leave Benton, which is in the southern part of Illinois, because of the effect the damp climate had upon his wife. The Tabernacle church has chosen Mr. Cody to hold services during the winter, but they are endeavoring to persuade Rev. F. J. Leonard, who held services here in the summer, to under take the permanent pastorate of the church.

DARROW DENIES MISUSE OF MONEY

Says Bail for Alleged Briber was Not Furnished by Federation of Labor

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 1.—Because of an allegation that money contributed to the McNamara defense fund was being diverted for bail for Bert H. Franklin, accused of trying to bribe a prospective McNamara juror, and for his defense, the attorneys interested are considering issuing a formal statement explaining the situation.

Attorney Darrow declares there is absolutely no truth in the reports that the cash bail put up for Franklin and the large fee paid former Governor Henry T. Gage came from money sent to him by the American Federation of Labor. Defense Attorney Davis, who acted as counsel for Franklin until Gage accepted charge of the defense, declared the reason cash bail was furnished was that he did not desire to buy Franklin's freedom by pledging friends' property. On the other hand, the court was willing to accept $10,000 cash bail, whereas, if really had been offered, two sureties totalling $20,000 would have been demanded.

The district attorney's office is working hard today in preparing for the presentation of Franklin's case before Justice Young Monday. Samuel Browne, who arrested Franklin, declared he would show an attempt had been made to bribe not only Lockwood, but other men who were prospective jurors. Asked point blank whether he expected to show that an attempt had been made to approach one of the jurors already sworn, Browne evaded a direct answer, said the state would "not show its hand" until able to do so in court.

The twelfth venire in the McNamara case reported today. The court hoped to get two jurors before adjournment tonight, thus filling the box and permitting the exercising of peremptory challenges.

Had Evidence In Hand.

South Australia's assembly witnessed a dramatic scene recently. During a debate the prime minister stated that some gamblers had cut off a comrade's finger because he had joined the salvation army. A member questioned the truth of this statement, when the prime minister astonished the house by dramatically stretching forth his hand with a bottle in it, exclaiming: "Here is the finger, and the deposition accompanying it."

Reflections of a Loser.

The pari-mutuel machine eats up your hard-earned cash with the savor of a bookmaker, but it spares you his sardonic smile. And then, it doesn't own the horse on which you lose.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Ingratitude.

A Missouri farmer was nearly kicked to death by a mule that he had rescued from a burning barn. A mule may be as ungrateful as a thoughtless son.

Well Put.

At one time there were two members of the British house of commons named Montague Matthew and Montague Montague; the former a tall, handsome man, and the latter a little man. During a session of parliament the speaker, having addressed the latter as the former, Montague Matthew observed that it was strange he should make such a mistake, as there was as great a difference between them as between a horse chestnut and a chestnut horse.

SIMPLE INVENTION MAKES FIREMEN SMOKE PROOF

NEW YORK CITY.—James D. Halloran, a fireman attached to Engine Company No. 20, of this city, is the inventor of a simple but effective smokestack that has been given a successful test amid trying conditions.

The apparatus consists of branch pipe fixed to the ordinary fire hose nozzle, to which are attached three flexible tubes equipped at their ends, with rubber nose pieces. To the branch pipe is attached a length of heavily wired garden hose, the further end of which is allowed to trail behind on the street as the firemen enter a burning building. As the stream of water rushes through the hose, it sucks in a current of air through the garden hose, which goes via the small pipes to the nose pieces and is there breathed by the "smoke-eaters."

OLD ENGLISH INNS REMAIN
These Charming Places on the Post Roads Have Changed Little In Many Years.

A history of the coach roads out of London would be a history of England, and the stories of the inns alone would make a fat volume. They are still charming inns, with the same oak rafters and oak wainscoting, the same stuffed trout and foxes in dusty glass cases. They are as they were when they sold brandy in casks that had been thrown shorewards off Brighton and washed into the hands of waiting smugglers, as they were when a day broke, a masked gentleman on a gray mare would rap gently with his whip on their green shutters. And, then the inns themselves, what could be more charming than their names?

Such names as the Angel of the Annunciation, at Staines on the last change into Windsor, which dates back to the days of the monasteries when the innkeeper of that tavern was a lay brother, and on the last stage to Box Hill, the Robin Hood Inn which dates back to that man himself, and those other inns that celebrate the stars of the animal kingdom in specific colors: The White Hart at Henfield on the Brighton Road, the Dun Horse of Manning's Heath, the White Horse of Dorking, the Bull at Molesey, the Bear at Esher, the Lion at Guildford, and at Wimbledon the Dog and Fox. Great men have stopped at these inns, and while we change horses the landlord will point out the windows of the rooms in which they rested—the first man of Europe on his way to Brighton, Lord Nelson on his way to join his ship at Portsmouth, and Sheridan, Pope, Mr. Pepps, Walpole, Dick Turpin, Capt. Henry Esmond, Mr. Pickwick, Sam Weller and David Copperfield.—Rich and Harding Davis in the Metropolis.

Those "Iron Dollars."
"I have always felt that we of the middle west have about the best of everything in the United States," a Missouri man who is in New York said. "But I am willing to admit now that we play the part of the 'goat' in the currency deal."
"You will never know the significance of the term 'iron dollars' until you have carried the big wheels around in your pocket," he continued. "And you will doubtless never carry the cumbersome coin as long as the good-looking western brother consents to deal with that part of the currency. In the two months that I have been in the east I haven't had my hands on an 'iron dollar,' and I'm not homesick for the sight of one. When I return I am going to try to carry enough paper to last me until I come back again."

ASSAILANTS OF STOKES WEEP IN COURT

MISS LILLIAN GRAHAM

NEW YORK CITY—The trial of Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad, charged with attempting the life of W. E. D. Stokes has developed some very blunt testimony regarding the intimacy of the three parties and the constant demands by the actresses for more money from the New York hotel man.

When the testimony of Stokes reached the tragic part of the tale, Lillian Graham first melted into tears and then was so shaken with sobs that Miss Conrad embraced her and also wept.

"It's all a wicked lie, every word," the tearful Miss Graham said as she left the court at the end of the morning session.

A beautiful bunch of American beauty roses occupied the place vacated by the first occupant. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. W. A. Billings, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Emery, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. ## SCENIC WONDER AT THE MAJESTIC

Scene in Keogh & Nelson's Playlette Shifted From Modern to Ancient in Thirty Seconds

CARLOTTA STILL A FEATURE

Only Woman in the World to Loop-the-Loop on a Bicycle Draws Crowds

What is claimed to be one of the greatest scenic feats in modern vaudeville is a feature of The Vaudeville Surprise, put on by Edwin Keogh & Helen Nelson at the Majestic this week.

The act has a clever plot, the first scene of which is in a modern American home. In the marvelously short time of thirty seconds the scene is shifted to one in ancient Greece. Buildings, with all the stately and artistic features of genuine Grecian architecture are portrayed. The play proceeds for a brief period amid these surroundings and in thirty seconds is again shifted to the modern home in this country.

To the man or woman in the audience and even to the experienced theatrical man the short time required to shift the scenes is wonderful while the acting and the playlette itself is extremely clever.

Stars on Bill

The special program arranged by Manager Frank Koppelberger for Thanksgiving week was well received by packed houses at all performances yesterday and is avowed by many to be the best since the opening of the Majestic this season.

Carlotta, the only woman in the world to loop-the-loop on a bicycle, is still a great attraction.

Swor & Westbrook advertise their act as one of style and class and the large applause that greeted their offerings yesterday was the audience's hearty approval of their work. Swor is a brother of the great blackface comedian who made such a big hit here last winter and his work is on a par with that of his well known and much appreciated brother.

Walter Rogers is a comedian of more than ordinary merit and had no difficulty in making good with La Crosse followers of vaudeville. His act is fast and furious and is filled with good clean jokes.

Lonzo Cox, the inventor of magnified silhouetting is an artist in his line, and his characters of "faces we see in the moon" was particularly good. He afforded the audience much amusement by his caricaturing of people in the audience and many had no difficulty in recognizing the features of friends as thrown on the screen by Mr. Cox.

The films for Thanksgiving week are particularly good and were the cause of much favorable comment yesterday.

POWERS TO SEND TROOPS TO CHINA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Although Russia, Great Britain, France and Germany each will send 1,000 troops to Shanghai next week, the United States has taken no such step, according to the state, war and navy departments today. The war department was informed of the plan of other powers to mobilize 4,000 troops at Shanghai, but the officials said this would not influence the action of this government.

The state department said no word had been received from Minister Calhoun at Peking since Wednesday and that no troops would be dispatched save at his request. The navy department denied positively ordering the commander of the Pacific fleet, now at Hawaii, to the Orient.

The transport Sheridan is scheduled to arrive at Manila today and will be held there indefinitely, to take troops to China, whenever the order is given.

HYDE JUROR NOT ILL

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Dec. 1.—Fears that the illness of the juror, Harry Waldron, would force the temporary adjournment of the second trial of Dr. B. Clark Hyde, were dispelled when the juror appeared at court today. He was a bit pale, but otherwise appeared in good health. Mrs. J. K. Bauman, formerly Miss Alice Houlihan, a nurse to Colonel Thomas H. Swope, whom Dr. Hyde is accused of murdering, resumed the stand.

GOVERNORS IN CLEVELAND

SOCIETY SLAYER EXPECTS FREEDOM

Patterson Verdict Encourages Henwood; Says the Circumstances Were Identical

DENVER, Col., Dec. 1.—Through the acquittal of Mrs. Gertrude Gibson Patterson, Frank H. Henwood, the society man under life sentence for the murder of George E. Copeland, expects to go free.

Henwood declared today that the circumstances of his shooting Tony Von Phul, the St. Louis balloonist, in the bar room of the Brown Palace hotel, last May, are identical with the circumstances of the killing of Charles A. Patterson. Henwood is confident he will be acquitted if granted a second trial.

In each case the slain man was shot in the back. In the killing of Von Phul, it was proved that Henwood fired the shots in rapid succession fifteen seconds after Von Phul had knocked him down with a blow in the face. In the Patterson case it was shown that Mrs. Patterson fired four shots and that there was a pause between the third and fourth shots, indicating premeditation.

In the Henwood case Judge Whitford ruled that even though Henwood fired a few seconds after he had been knocked down by Von Phul, the fact that Von Phul was shot in the back indicated that he had turned away and that therefore, Henwood's life was not in danger. Under this ruling there was nothing left for a jury but to return a verdict of conviction.

"With the Patterson verdict as a precedent, I should have no trouble in securing an acquittal, too," declared Henwood today.

LOCAL POULTRY WINS TROPHIES

C. J. Sleer, 113 West avenue south, who exhibited six of his white Wyandottes at the poultry show at Davenport, Iowa, last week, returns with three first prizes, a third and fourth prize and a silver cup, which he received for having the best female bird in the exhibition.

That Mr. Sleer's birds are of the best is evident from a statement made by O. L. McCord, one of the judges, who said that the fowl which took the silver cup for being the best female in the show was one of the best and whitest birds he had ever seen. D. E. Hale of Quincy, Ill., another judge, also praised Mr. Sleer's birds highly. As there were 1,200 chickens entered in the show, it is evident that Mr. Sleer's birds rank highly with any in the middle west.

These six prize winning chickens as well as many others will be exhibited at the local poultry show next week by Mr. Sleer, and they will doubtless receive a high rating here.

DAY HAS PLAN TO PROTECT PIPES

J. T. Day of the board of public works said this morning that he was going to attempt to get permission from the government to drive piling around the intake pipes in the river. "This action," said Mr. Day, "is the only method which I can see that can be used to remedy conditions at the intake pipe. Although I am not certain as to whether or not the government will allow me to place these pilings around the pipes, it is the only course which I see that I can pursue."

WINDSOR CLUB WILL GIVE FEATURE BALL

Confetti, although prohibited upon the streets of La Crosse, will come into use in this city at the dance of the Windsor club to be held at Linker's hall Saturday night. ### BISHOP OPPOSED TO WOMAN SUFFRAGE

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Dec. 1.—Declaring that women already have too much to do, Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle, presiding head of the Episcopal church in the United States today declared himself opposed to woman suffrage in this country.

"Women are already predominant in four-sevenths of the activities of the human race—the home, school, society and the church," said Bishop Tuttle, "and I see no reason why they should be called upon to take a hand in the other three-sevenths—business, government and war. One of my principal reasons for giving thanks yesterday was the fact that this question of equal suffrage is to be left to the common sense of the American people who have already solved the knotty questions of church and state, and church and schools."

Sealed bid will be received for the furnishing of about 1,000 yards of heavy clay to be delivered on the normal school grounds at La Crosse, not later than December 20, 1911. Funds for the payment will be available in February, 1912. Bids must be left with the undersigned not later than Wednesday, December 6, 1911. THOMAS MORRIS.

RUSSIA PREPARES TO GRAB PERSIA

Troops Ordered to Teheran to Enforce Deposition of American Treasurer of Country

ENGLAND IS ALSO EDGING IN

Persia Likely to Be Gobbled Up Entirely by the Covetous Powers

ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 1.—Russia has ordered troops to Teheran to enforce her demand that W. Morgan Shuster, the energetic American treasurer of Persia, be deposed. Unless Persia acquiesces at once, she must fight the czar's army, and in the latter event, runs a grave chance of being gobbled up completely by Russia and England.

The decision to move troops to the Persian capital was reached today following the rejection by the Persian national assembly of England's suggestion that she accede to the demands of Russia.

England's position indicates that she is giving her moral support to Russia.

Powers Reach Agreement

For several weeks Russia has been mobilizing Cossacks and infantry at Resht, a Persian city, 150 miles northwest of Teheran. Practically all the troops at Resht were ordered to the Persian capital.

Russia has long looked with anxious eyes on a strip of Persian territory to the north, while England has been equally covetous of a strip of the Shah's domain to the south.

There is no doubt expressed here that England and Russia have reached a definite understanding regarding the partitioning of Persia, if the latter country does not expel Shuster at once.

The Russian bureaucracy has been sorely pained by Shuster's administration of Persian finances. Had the American not done his work so well, the czar and his advisers would have been better satisfied.

Russia has long hoped that the financial condition of Persia would become so poor that she could take the much-coveted territory without protest from the Persians. The fact that Shuster has bolstered up the adopted country's finances has disappointed this hope for the present. Hence Russia decided that she must act quickly. It is obvious that the czar made Shuster an excuse for assailing Persia.

Shuster Has 'em Guessing

Russian officialdom is wondering what course Shuster will pursue. Whether he will retire to prevent Persia from resisting Russia in battle, or will "stand by his guns" is problematical.

BRIEF ILLNESS ENDS IN DEATH

Mr. Fred Kapanke, 59, 807 South Third street, died at a local hospital last night after a short illness. He is survived by seven children. ### SPECIAL SERVICE AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The ceremony was simple and quiet, only immediate friends and relatives attending. The bride couple was attended by George Hanson, a brother of the bridegroom, as best man, and Miss Julia Steize, as maid of honor.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the bride, 1530 Barlow street. Covers were laid for thirty guests.

FIRE RECORDS SHOW INCREASE

The fire record for the month of November shows a decided increase not only in the amount of damage by fire but also by the number of alarms, over that of October. The loss and alarms are also greater than that of November, 1910. Following is the record for November, 1910 and 1911, and October:

November, 1911—Loss $1,153, alarms sixteen.
November, 1910—Loss $520, alarms eleven.

October, 1911—Loss $240, alarms four.

Chief Bradfield gives the change of weather, causing the installation of heating stoves, as the cause of the sudden increase in the number of fires.

THE HAGUE, Dec. 1.—A worldwide campaign against the opium traffic opened here today when the international opium conference convened with delegates from nearly every civilized nation. China, most affected, is taking a leading part. Subjects to be considered are:

Prohibition of culture of poppy plants in countries not growing it now.

Prohibition of use of the drug, except under medical supervision.

Notification of all shipments.

Slipped Up on the Sleuth.

A Cincinnati reporter, acting independently of the men working for other papers, resolved to have an account of the proceedings of a council meeting to which no outsiders were to be admitted. By collusion with the janitor he climbed to a spot that was not without its dangers and was dusty beyond description. There he took out a notebook for a shorthand report.

The meeting came to order and the first thing the chairman did was to move a reconsideration and admit the reporters. This was carried and they all (minus one) filed in to take their places in comfortable positions.

DISTRICT MANAGERS ARMED FOR CAMPAIGN

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 1.—All is in readiness for the opening of the Red Cross Christmas seal campaign today. Distributed among more than 800 local campaign managers throughout the state is the ammunition for the anti-tuberculosis fight—2,584,000 seals, each one to sell for a penny and each a bullet in the side of the common foe to mankind, consumption.

With perfected organization and with plan of attack all worked out and branch manager waits in readiness for the opening of the sale on Friday. There will be a week of drumming and then the leaders will settle down to a fortnight's hard campaign, each straining every effort to make the showing of his or her district better than that of any other.

The leaders of the sale in the Milwaukee office of the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis association are optimistic regarding the prospects for a record breaking 1911 sale.

POLICE FORBIDDEN BOOZE

"A policeman needs a cool head," McWeeney declared, "and I propose to see that he does not befuddle it with booze."

BUSER IS HONORED BY WATCH SHOWER

He says his studies are suffering by taking time out to wind up his various timepieces.

TAFT MAY REPEAT HARRISON DEFEAT

Can Land Nomination in Spite of Fact that It Spells Disaster to the Party

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Close political observers, who are confident that the nomination of President Taft would result in the defeat of the republican party at the polls in 1912 are recalling what happened to that party in 1892 when President Harrison insisted on having a second nomination, notwithstanding opposition throughout the country, and especially among some of the leaders of the party. Then, as now the president, counted on the delegates from the south to insure his nomination.

The situation which confronted the republican party in 1892 and that which confronts it today is identical. President Harrison was determined to have a second nomination, and in this he was supported by the tradition of the party. Harrison's announcement to the political leaders of that day that he was a candidate for another nomination was equivalent to having the nomination given to him. The administration controlled the delegates from the south which, together with a few states in the north, was enough to prevent the nomination of any other candidate. Harrison was renominated because instruction were followed and pledges kept. The tradition that a president must have a second nomination if he desires it was respected. The republican party went down to defeat in 1892, principally because President Harrison refused to recognize the opposition to his candidacy.

Commenting on this interesting bit of political history the Larange Standard says:

"Is the time coming when men can be free to support and praise an administration without meaning that the president must be renominated?"

"The election of a president to a second term has never in the history of America, done the president or his party any good. The only renomination of a good president to a second term has frequently doomed his party to defeat. Why cannot we get out of this rut of disaster and ask our presidents to be content with one term?"

"Of course, it could have been said, in the case of Harrison, that it was better to nominate him and be defeated by the democrats than to allow the republican insurgents to

CITY SEALERS REDUCE PRICES

Supt. of Weights and Measures in New York City Explains Benefits to Be Derived from Office

"In the United States we have taken care to regulate the money but we have not even attempted to regulate a uniform or even an honest standard of weight and measure and in this latter subject conditions are as chaotic as could be well imagined," said Dr. F. Reichmann, superintendent of weights and measures of New York state, in an address before the joint meeting of the council of presidents of the eastern section of the New York State Federation of Women's Clubs and the Club Women's First District meeting.

Dr. Reichmann's talk proves exceptionally interesting to La Crosse people in view of the fact that this city is to have a sealer of weights and measures. The value of an official of this kind is plainly shown in the address in which it is demonstrated that the people lose a great deal by getting short weight.

As an example of how the public loses in weights, the speaker told of an incident which actually occurred. At one time the regular price of apples was 70 cents a peck but a peddler one day came to a housekeeper and offered the fruit for sale at 35 cents per peck. This housekeeper, however, had a set of certified standards and after examining the apples and seeing that they were of good quality she said that she would purchase a peck. The peddler heaped his measure full and poured them into the certified standard whereupon it was found that the correct measure was but half full. It required two and a fraction of his measures to make a peck, and he remarked after receiving his money and looking at the standard: "Madam, I will never come by here again. Thank God they are not all as wise as you are."

This clearly shows the value to the community of an inspector of weights and measures, as, had there been one in this case the peddler could not have used a short double-bottomed measure and the purchaser would have been protected.

After showing that when a thief is guilty of picking pockets or of other misdemeanors on a street that he is captured and brought to justice, and that few lose by this method often, the speaker showed how the public is being robbed daily by becoming the victim of a short weight artist.

Dr. Reichmann averred that the short weight and measure evil exists in three forms: First, faulty apparatus to determine the quantity; second, faulty use of correct apparatus; third, the goods put up in packages with no indication of the quantity of contents.

Explains False Measures

There are many kinds of faulty apparatus by which the public does not get full value, the peddler's and fagman's spring scales with sliding fronts, adjustable springs, bent points, that will show whatever the thumb and index finger of the manipulator desires, being but one example. Other illustrations of this kind of apparatus are computing scales with false computations, weights made lighter by different means, dry measures with various false bottoms and sides, ice cream pails from 5 to 15 per cent short, butter trays that are very light, short milk bottles, "fake" milk dipers, false berry boxes, liquid measures with holes in the sides, and many others. These are but a few of the means used to defraud the consumer.

In many instances the purchaser is defrauded when correct apparatus is put to faulty use, an instance of which is when the dealer places heavy wrapping paper on glass scales for "sanitary purposes" and incidentally the buyer pays for this paper which is soaked in addition to his butter or meat or whatever his purchase may be.

Dr. Reichmann declared that the practice of putting up of goods in packages with no indication of the quantity of the contents is the direct result of the shortcomings of the National Pure Food and Drugs Act.

Worst Deception

"We must frankly and regretfully say," continued the speaker, "that in the molasses business there has been and still is some of the worst sort of deception. For instance, it's a common practice to put into a quart can the contents of a No. 2 1/2 can. There is nothing on the label referring to the size, but the consumer is deceived by the appearance. We deplore this because we would like to see the whole molasses business conducted on a clean, honest basis."

Dr. Reichmann said that there is no excuse for not marking every package or can with the weight or measure of the contents. He declared that when a law was passed in North Dakota requiring that the containers be plainly marked an increase of from 17 to 21 per cent in the contents of canned goods was the result.

He gave numerous instances of this short weight and measure asserting that many times a 25-yard spool of picture cord was found to be short 19 feet and that other articles were found to be lacking in a like respect.

In view of the fact that this is the only country in the world that does not have effective laws on weights and measures, Dr. Reichmann urged that legislation on this question be introduced as he claims that this is the only remedy for the situation.

Two influential members of the pope's official family are shown riding with him.

HARD WINTER FOR LABORERS—KLEEBER

That the coming winter will be one of the hardest to weather, for the laborer, in the history of the country, is the assertion of Superintendent L. Kleeber of the local branch of the state employment bureau, today.

"Work always becomes slack at this time of year but indications are that it will be more so this year than ever," said Mr. Kleeber. "Several of the larger firms and railroads are inaugurating a retrenchment policy and are laying off large numbers of men all over the country."

"There is a large demand for men in the timber districts and I have been sending crews to the northern part of the state to work in the woods for the past month, but others refuse to work except in cities and it is upon these that the brunt of the hardships will fall."

CASE OF FISHERS ADJOURNED A WEEK

Roy Nemest, alleged to have used a net in catching game fish, was brought before Judge Brindley this morning by Game Warden Edward Gautsch but owing to the fact that the defense wishes to procure more witnesses, the case was adjourned for one week. Nemest produced two witnesses who substantiated his declaration to the effect that the only net which he possessed was one used for catching minnows. The prosecution presented two other witnesses who asserted that they have seen Nemest use a large set net.

Diagnosed.
"That's a smart thing I've done," said the doctor to his assistant. "What's that, doctor?" "I have put my signature in the column 'cause of death' in this death certificate."—Tit-Bits.

DROP KICK DOWNS LA CROSSE HIGH

Jefferson Wins in the Last Game of the Season; Reese Boots Ball Over the Bar

HUNDREDMARK STAR IN GAME

Captain of Local Aggregation Pulls Off Sensational Tackles; Several Injured

Lead by Captain Hundredmark in sensational and plucky style, the La Crosse high fought like demons to bring the 1911 gridiron season to a close with a victory, in their game with Jefferson. High yesterday but without success. A drop kick from the thirty yard line by Quarterback Reese of the visiting aggregation during the first quarter, decided the day, the final score being three to nothing, with the southerners as victors.

Captain Hundredmark at tackle was the individual star of the day, repeatedly pulling down the Jefferson runners when they practically had a clear field, and covering ground in a marvelous manner, despite the poor condition of the grounds.

The defeat of the local squad was directly due to fumbling of forward passes, repeated attempts to make gains through the line, despite the fact that the condition of the grounds made this impossible and the loss of Stavrum, the local punter, during the first half.

The locals were extremely unlucky in the number of injuries that they received. Fullback McKahan was laid out even before the game began by colliding with a small boy when catching a few trial punts, but he was able to enter the game. Before the first three downs of the first two minutes, three more of the locals were injured; Renner sprained his ankle and had to be substituted for a few minutes but resumed battle, Stavrum received a severe kick on the head and was knocked semi-conscious. He continued the game until nearly the end of the first half when he was substituted by Gunderson, who went in at center Hayes having been shifted to end.

The Jefferson men played a scrappy game. Henry and Newland played the star game for the visitors. These two tackles broke up the locals' plays time and time again before they were fairly started. Reese, at quarter, also played a strong game for Jefferson and used his booting leg to a great advantage in keeping the locals out of danger. All credit for their scores is due to his sure toe.

The highs put up a far better exhibition of football in the second half than they did in the first.

The Details of the Game
Jefferson won the toss and chose to kick off to La Crosse who defended the south goal. Jefferson kicked off to Chamberlain on the 15 yard line who returned it 15. Welmar and Stavrum could not gain in two downs. Renner was taken out because of a sprained ankle, his place was taken by Sorgel. La Crosse punted. Jefferson failed to gain through right tackle. Time was taken out for Bovee, Jefferson made a drop kick from the 25 yard line. Score Jefferson 3, La Crosse 0.

During the remainder of the period, Jefferson was forced to punt several times to keep out of danger. Jefferson was penalized several times for holding.

The second period began with La Crosse in possession of the ball. Sorgel made 1 on a formation play. Strum made 2 through center. Jefferson was off side which made it first downs for La Crosse. McKahan made 2 through left guard. Jefferson intercepted a forward pass. The visitors lost 5 on a tackle back play. A shift gained them 5 but they were forced to punt. Six of the next fifteen plays were punts, the visitors were on a par with the home team in punting. In the last minute of the period, Hayes was shifted to end to fill Stavrum's place and Gunderson was put in at center. The period closed with Strum punting to Jefferson in the center of the field.

The second half opened with Jefferson kicking off to Strum on the 20 yard line, who advanced the ball 15. Punts were frequently exchanged. Jefferson failed to gain at all on line plunges but pulled off several long gains on forward passes. La Crosse used line plunges mostly and punted only when there was danger of not making downs. Jefferson was penalized several times for holding. La Crosse showed more of the fight spirit in this quarter than it had heretofore.

La Crosse began the fourth quarter with a succession of snappy line plunges which netted them a few yards each time but not enough to make their downs. Jefferson punted the oval as soon as they got possession of it. The locals tried a series of forward passes but were unsuccessful in most of them because of fumbles. When the locals found that they could not use forward passes to an advantage, they resorted to a series of inside kicks. Jefferson was successful in recovering the kicks and tried to punt out of danger each time. The last inside kick went over the goal line so the ball

CHANGE OF RULES WILL HURT GAME

Wisconsin Coach Says Big Colleges Want Change in Rules which will Help Them

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 1.—A return to the old days of brutalized football and an unfair advantage on the side of the beefier teams is predicted by Charles McCarthy of this city, former all-American halfback of Brown university, if the present plans of big colleges and universities go through. Dr. McCarthy believes that the past season has shown the big colleges that under the present rules they do not have the advantage given them by former rules, and he sends a movement to nullify the regulations now in effect.

Dr. McCarthy points to numerous defeats and ties of large teams east and west as proofs of the fact that the present rules tend to equalize playing conditions and conduce to "fixes." Such was last year's defeat of Yale by West Point and Brown, and her tie with Vanderbilt and Harvard, and similar drubbings this year. Michigan last year was tied by Case, Ohio State and Pennsylvania.

"The big colleges have begun the agitation to cut down the distance to be gained on three downs," said Dr. McCarthy. "I thought this would come. The big colleges have been beaten so repeatedly lately that they wish to return to old conditions. I called attention last year to this movement. They did succeed in maiming the forward pass by unfair legislation."

"I warn the colleges and high school teachers, and the fathers and mothers, that if the plans of the big colleges go through football will become more dangerous. The way to make it more interesting without being made more dangerous is to take some of the restrictions away from the forward pass. With the present representation on the rules committee the situation is mighty dangerous."

Dr. McCarthy declared the reduced list of accidents this year is commentary enough in favor of leaving the rules as they are.

OSHKOSH DEFEATS CHIPPEWA FALLS

OSHKOSH, Wis., Dec. 1.—Oshkosh high school defeated the Chippewa Falls high squad 11 to 0. Forward passes, trick plays and superior handling of punts dazzled the visitors. Chippewa could gain only at intervals, and only threatened to score twice.

Simpson scored the first touchdown on a split formation in the second quarter, and later, Slover ran 60 yards through a broken field, scoring the final touchdown on a forward pass. Eight of the locals ended their football careers yesterday. Oshkosh has not been defeated for four years.

MARQUETTE FAILS TO MAKE SCORE

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Dec. 1.—For the third time in as many years 10,000 people yesterday saw Marquette and Notre Dame battle for sixty long minutes to a tie. With the campus in the best shape in years these two great rivals gave the Milwaukee fans a football treat that will long be remembered.

Neither side was able to score and the teams left the field the supremacy of the two schools still undecided, for the game ended 0 to 0. It was a fine battle, as good as could be asked for and both teams displayed wonderful form throughout the contest.

It would be hard indeed to select individual stars in a contest like that staged yesterday for it was the great teamwork that made the battle possible. Each team was trained to the minute and seldom did plays go wrong. The two backfields, equal in strength, played the games of their career and the two lines held like the proverbial stone walls. It was around the ends and skirting tackle that most of the gains were made by Marquette while the visitors made their greatest gains on shifts and forward passes.

Calculating Meanness.
"I suppose you heard what Meanley did in church last Sunday when the plate came round to him?" "Dropped a button in it, I suppose." "Worse than that. He leaned over and whispered: 'I paid the pastor's car fare yesterday. We'll call it square.'"—Catholic Standard and Times.

Crusade Against Sparrows.
English agricultural societies have started a sparrow crusade. Bounties are paid for birds and eggs.

Substitute for Soap.
Boiled potatoes make an excellent substitute for soap if your hands have become blackened with contact with pots and pans. Take a little of the potato and rub well into the skin, then rinse it off with warm water.

No Excitement.
"A man doesn't seem to take any pleasure in writing letters to a woman after he has married her," said Mrs. Gloomer. "No," replied Miss Cayenne; "he seems to lose all interest when there is no possibility of his letters being read to a jury."

Modest Modern Man.

Whatever may be said of the modern man, he cannot be said to be lacking in modesty. While the ancients did their utmost to prove that they issued from the gods, we do our best to demonstrate that we have descended from monkeys.—London Daily Mail.

In Doubt.

"Engaged to that beautiful girl and yet not happy?" "Well, she's gone in by turns for rowing and tennis and horses and golf and dogs." "Say on." "Sometimes I wonder if I am a sweet-heart or merely a fad."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

As Success is Measured.

Success is measured by appropriate service. Widow O'Callaghan made a success in life; so did the mother in the "Bird's Christmas Carol"; so did the mother of "Tiny Tim." Success means filling a useful place in society.

That Little "It."

If the nose of Cleopatra had been shorter, the whole face of the earth would have been changed.—Pascal.

Chicago Grain Letter

CHICAGO, Dec. 1.—Erratic price movement marked wheat trading today. The grain opened strong, on cables of firmness at Liverpool, but there was a sharp break following closely on reports of heavy receipts at Minneapolis. Following this lack of selling pressure caused a reaction and the market ruled fairly firm.

Corn was down a fraction at the opening, but strength in wheat caused a decided reaction. The weather was fairly favorable over the crop belt, and the forecast was for continued fair weather.

The market for oats ruled firm throughout the day. The feature of the day's trading was good demand for December by cash and elevator houses. The movement of oats continued small.

The provision market was slow, opening somewhat lower than Tuesday's close. There was a run of selling by locals who went long over the holiday, and commission houses were good buyers on the dip.

LETTUCE WHILE YOU WAIT

Dinner Guests May See It Grow on the Table for Their Salad.

When at a dinner in Rome a tourist was served with strawberries, still growing on the parent vine, in a common earthen pot which was concealed by a sash of wide ribbon, she thought this was the last word with regard to serving food at the dinner table. It remains, however, for a New York florist to work what seems like a miracle. He claims to be able to grow lettuce while you wait—crisp lettuce for dinner to eat with your broiled spring chicken.

When asked to reveal his secret he said: "I take a handful of lettuce seeds that have been soaked overnight in alcohol and I plant them in a box containing three inches of loam and quicklime. I water this well, and in ten minutes two tiny leaves push through the earth. The leaves grow and multiply. In an hour they are as big as dollars. Then you may pluck and eat them. They are delicious—a fairy salad. Sometimes when I give a dinner party I have one of these little prepared lettuce beds in the center of the table. The guests see the lettuce grow, and when the time comes for the salad course there is their salad blooming before them all ready for them to pluck."

La Follette Strength Continues to Grow in Minnesota; Governor Fears Taft's Defeat

WON'T RISK JOINT CAMPAIGN

Unique Situation in Gopher State; Straw Vote Tells Tale in Washington

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Indications of the growing strength of Senator La Follette throughout the country, and a corresponding weakness in the candidacy of President Taft, are multiplying daily.

The most startling sign of weakness in the Taft forces is to be found in Minnesota. The Taft followers have been claiming that state for the president, allowing Senator La Follette, but one or two delegates. Now, however, comes Governor Eberhart in a formal announcement that he will not couple his campaign for re-election with that of President Taft. In other words, Governor Eberhart will conduct his campaign for re-election without regard to President Taft or national politics. If a campaign is to be made in Minnesota in behalf of the president it will have to be independent of the Eberhart campaign.

This official announcement from Governor Eberhart's office, according to Minnesota men in Washington, means that the president is so weak in Minnesota that the governor does not dare risk defeat by joining his campaign with that of the president. "Governor Eberhart is merely making public a state of facts which are well known to all close political observers in my state," said a prominent Minnesota man. "Minnesota is anti-Taft, and strongly so. The very fact that the governor of the state is afraid to couple his name with that of the president of the United States in making a campaign for re-election is of itself sufficient evidence of the weakness of the president. If Mr. Taft had a chance of carrying Minnesota, Governor Eberhart would be only too glad to couple his own efforts with those of the national administration."

The Eberhart announcement merely confirms the assertions of the progressive republicans to the effect that a very large majority of the voters of Minnesota favor the nomination of Senator La Follette. It is pointed out in political circles in Washington that the present Minnesota situation furnishes a remarkable example of the weakness of President Taft. The situation is so unusual as to be almost unique. Heretofore candidates on state tickets seeking re-election have been only too glad to be able to join issues with a president of the United States on the theory that their chances would be bettered by the influence exerted from Washington. Here, however, is an announcement from a governor of a state showing Senator La Follette to be far in the lead as a presidential choice. The poll is as follows:

	Choice.	Choice.	Total
La Follette	72	25	97
Wilson	15	26	41
Taft	22	17	39
Bryan	4	8	12
Debs	6	1	7
Roosevelt	5	8	13
Clark	4	9	13
Berger	1	2	3
Folk	0	2	2
Harmon	0	2	2
Cummins	0	2	2
Hughes	0	1	1

The vote discloses that Senator La Follette received more than twice as many votes as President Taft. It many votes as President Taft. It should be borne in mind that while the votes were cast by male and female teachers the women vote in Washington.

INDIAN POW-WOW AT CARLISLE COLLEGE

CARLISLE, Pa., Dec. 1.—The first Indian pow-wow for years at the Indian school here was conducted during the last few days, when four distinguished Cheyenne chiefs from the Tongue river reservation in Montana, visited the children of the tribe at the government's educational institution, and later showed the marks of civilization influence when they quietly slipped into a drug store and silently slipped chocolate milk-shakes. At the pow-wow the four chiefs, together with the thirty Cheyenne students at the white men are giving them. Through an interpreter they talked to Superintendent Friedman, and declared themselves more than ever converted to education and that they would go back to their people and talk and send them to school. These same old fellows have been strong opponents in the past of the white man's education. More amazing than anything else, the four chiefs agreed that it would be best that their children should speak no Indian language, that they should forget the past and seek citizenship in the future.

Last week a blind man accidentally wandered into a gambling house. That suggests something. Why not put some blind man on the police force
